SERIES 4\RECORDS RELATING TO AFRICA. –1954-2004. –2 photographs

Until 1976, first as an Associate Secretary and then as Secretary, Garth Legge had responsibility for Africa, the Caribbean, and Latin America. James A. Kirkwood first reported as Associate Secretary for Africa in 1977, with Garth Legge continuing to have responsibility for the Caribbean and Latin America. From 1988 to 1993, Paula J. Butler and Jim Kirkwood shared the roles of Africa Area Secretaries, followed by Omega Bula and Paula Butler (1994-1995), Omega Bula and Lee Holland (1996-2002). Under the major reorganization of 2002, work related to Africa was moved to the Justice, Global and Ecumenical Relations Unit.

Series consists of the following subseries, 1) Office files, 1971-1999; 2) Contacts and Projects in various nations, 1954-2004; 3) Records Relating to Ecumenical Partnerships, 1961-2001.

Series includes some records of the Board of World Missions and Justice, Global and Ecumenical Relations unit as there was overlap between staff members as the units changed over time. See also Fonds 503 for Board of World Missions fonds, and Fonds 552 for Justice Global and Ecumenical Relations fonds. See also series 10 for photographs from 1987.308C.

SERIES 4\Subseries 1: Office Files, 1971-2005.

Subseries consists of records of Associate and Africa Area secretaries from 1971-2005, including records of Garth Legge, Jim Kirkwood, Lee Holland, Paula Butler, Omega Bula, Gary Kenny and Goretti Mugambwa. Also includes records of the Africa Area Committee, 1969-2003.

Note: Subseries includes some records of the Board of World Missions and Justice, Global and Ecumenical Relations unit as there was overlap between staff members as the units changed over time. See also Fonds 503 for Board of World Missions fonds, and Fonds 552 for Justice Global and Ecumenical Relations fonds. Additional records of Secretaries re programs in specific countries may be included in subseries 2. SERIES 5\RECORDS RELATING TO ASIA AND PACIFIC. --1953-2001. --5 photographs.

The Asia Area comprised of Hong Kong, Japan, Korea, the Philippines, India, Nepal, and Taiwan in 1972 but the boundaries were continually altered since that time. E. Frank Carey, an Associate Secretary and then Deputy Secretary, was responsible for Asia until 1984. In 1985 the Asia and Pacific Area Secretary first reported; at times the responsibilities for this area were divided between two Area Secretaries--for East Asia, and for South Asia and Pacific. During this period cooperation with other churches (both native and foreign) and mutuality in mission were important. Area Secretaries for East Asia 1985 have included Rhea M. Whitehead, 1984-1991 and Nancy (Nan) Hudson, 1992-2000 while Jack G. Lakavich, 1988-1995 and Bruce Gregersen, 1996-2001 have served as Area Secretaries for South Asia and Pacific.

Series consists of the of the following subseries: 1) Office Files, 1953-2001; 2) Contacts and Projects in Various Nations, 1968-2001; and 3) Records relating to ecumenical partnerships, 1974-2001.

Series includes some records of the Board of World Missions and Justice, Global and Ecumenical Relations unit as there was overlap between staff members as the units changed over time. See also Fonds 503 for Board of World Missions fonds, and Fonds 552 for Justice Global and Ecumenical Relations fonds.

See Series 10 for related photographs.

SERIES 5\Subseries 1: Office Files. --1953-2001.

Subseries consists of records of E. Frank Carey, 1953-1987; Rhea Whitehead, 1985-1998; Nan Hudson, 1975-2001; Jack Lakavich, 1989-1995; Bruce Gregersen, 1996-2001; General Office Files, 1988-2001; and records of the Asia Pacific Committee, 1985-2001.

Additional records of Secretaries re programs in specific countries may be included in subseries 2 and subseries 3.. As records were passed between staff members, the ownership of the records is often multiple secretaries.

Japan

The post-World War II history of Christian missions in Japan is intimately connected with several interdenominational bodies in which the United Church was a cooperating member, such as Interboard Committee for Christian Work in Japan, based in New York, the Council of Cooperation, and after 1973 the Japan-North American Commission on Cooperative Mission (which assumed the duties of the Interboard Committee).

See also administrative records from JNAC Coordinator Linda Ervin in Japan-North American Commission for Cooperative Mission Fonds 4031. See also photographs of Missionaries in Japan in 83.015P/1-5, and 76.001P/4843.

Note, records of Japan-North American Commission on Cooperative Mission also held at Duke University.

Garth Legge, first as an Associate Secretary and then as Secretary, was responsible for Africa, the Caribbean, and Latin America until 1977 when an Associate Secretary for Africa first reported. He continued to have responsibility for the Caribbean and Latin America Area until 1983. From 1984-2002 the Area was the responsibility of an Associate Secretary (1984) or Area Secretary (from 1985). Associate Secretaries were Rev. Thomas C. Edmonds, 1984-1990; Rev. Christopher Ferguson, 1991-1998 and Jim Hodgson, 2000-2001. Under the major reorganization of 2002, work related to Caribbean and Latin America was moved to the Justice, Global and Ecumenical Relations Unit.

Series consists of the following subseries; 1) Office Files, 1942-2000; 2) Contracts and Projects in Various Nations, 1969-2003; 3) Records Relating to Ecumenical Partnerships, 1968-2000.

SERIES 7\RECORDS RELATING TO INTERFAITH DIALOGUE. –1968-2000.

In 1972, the General Council authorized the creation of a portfolio under administration of the Division of World Outreach on Research and Education in Interfaith Relations and International Understanding. The name of the portfolio changed in 1976 to Interfaith Dialogue when the terms of reference were altered to exclude international affairs, and to give more emphasis to education and promotion of interfaith exchanges. The mandate, simply stated, was "to develop community through dialogue with people of other faiths within and beyond Canada." The Secretary had six main areas of responsibility: initiating dialogues between people of different faiths; representing the Division in Canada and abroad in discussions about interfaith encounters; interpreting dialogue concerns to the Church; providing and disseminating resource materials; extending dialogue into cognate areas of human rights; and doing appropriate research. The Secretary began serving ex-officio as a member of the General Council Committee on Inter-Church and Inter-Faith Relations in 1980. New terms of reference, instituted in 1988, charged the Secretary with the task of devising ways to promote interfaith dialogue at the congregational level in concert with the General Council and Conference Inter-Church and Inter-Faith committees. James F. Seunarine was Secretary from 1974 to 1980. He was succeeded by John H. Berthrong who served from 1980 to 1989. Paul W. Newman served from 1990-1993, and Bruce Gregersen from 1995-2001.

Series consists of the following subseries: 1) Records of Secretaries, 1968-2000, 2) Records of Interfaith Dialogues, 1980-1995, and 3) General Office Files, 1979-1999.

SERIES 8\RECORDS RELATING TO DEVELOPMENT. –1973-2003. –20 photographs.

When the work of the Board of World Mission became part of the Division of World Outreach the responsibilities held by two committees under the General Council, the Committee on World Development and Relief and the Committee on Overseas Relief and Inter-Church Aid, were made one under the Division of World Outreach and called the Committee on World Development, Service and Relief, in 1972. The Committee was overseen by a Secretary of the World Development Service and Relief Committee (Glenna Graham, 1976-1979), then an Associate Secretary, Development (Glenna Graham, 1979-1982); then, Development Secretary (Lee Holland, 1986-1996).

In a unit reorganization in 1997, work re development was folded into Education for Engagement, which brought together and integrated the educational work of three former DWO Committees (Development, Interfaith, Mission Education) as part of the implementation of the recommendations of the Division's Strategic Work Task Group.

Series consists of the following subseries 1) Records of Secretaries, 1973-2003, 2) Records of Development Committee, 1989-1995; 3) General Office Files, 1972-1994; 4) Records re Emergency Relief, 1979-1997 5) Records re Development Programs in Specific Countries, 1990-1995.

SERIES 9\RECORDS RELATING TO EDUCATION FOR ENGAGEMENT –1986-2005.

In a unit reorganization in 1997, work re development was folded into Education for Engagement, which brought together and integrated the educational work of three former DWO Committees (Development, Interfaith, Mission Education) as part of the implementation of the recommendations of the Division's Strategic Work Task Group.

The mandate of the Education for Engagement Committee was to ensure the implementation of the Division's mandate for education for engagement of The United Church of Canada's community in global partnerships, or, supporting the Division's commitment to find ways to enable the whole of the United church to better participate in global partnership.

Educational work of the Division was meant to enrich the understanding and practice of partnership, integrate the whole of the United Church more completely in the partnerships the Division maintained and respond to local initiatives in that regard, facilitate people-to-people exchanges, south/south, south/north and north/south, and deepen commitment to the support of systemic justice.

Work of the Cluster: globalization, the Canadian Jubilee Initiative, twinning, Face to Face, Faith to Faith, Interfaith Reference Group, Mission Study, Moral Economy, urgent action, responses to emergencies, emergency appeals, ecumenical coalitions, gender justice and partnership.

In 2002, the Division of World Outreach work was absorbed by the newly created Justice Global and Ecumenical Relations Unit. Work continued in the People in Mission Unit.

Series consists of Records of Global Development Education Secretary, 1986-2005; Records re Animation, Mission Education and Global Education, 1976-2005.

See also overlapping and later records of this unit in Justice Global and Ecumenical Relations fonds 552, Series 6: Records Relating to People in Mission, and Series 8: Records Relating to Education for Justice. SERIES 9\Subseries 2: Records re Animation, Mission Education and Global Education. –1976-2005.

The position of Global Education Secretary was previously called Mission Education Secretary, and before that, Animator. The Animator had the role of Conference and presbytery liaison; monitoring Conference committees, developing and maintaining the Urgent Action Network and planning an annual consultation. The role was also responsible for leadership development and interdivisional and ecumenical collaboration. In 1991 the title was changed to the Mission Education Secretary to reflect that the DWO had a critical educational role to play. The tasks remained fundamentally the same; building and maintaining Conference relationships through mission interpretation, Urgent Action Networks, and annual consultations; and development education. The Animator, and Mission Education Secretary reported directly to the Secretary of the Division of World Outreach. In 1996-1997 the role was re-categorized as part of an in-depth review and restructuring of the DWO which affirmed the increased responsibility in this position and identified the need for the Division to concentrate somewhat more of its human and financial resources on education and engagement work within Canada. During that process it became part of the Education for Engagement Unit.

The position was held by Eric King, 1985-1987; Joanne Clarke, 1987-1992; Deborah Marshall, 1992-2001.

Subseries consists of the following sub-subseries; Records of the Global Education Secretary, 1976-2002; records of the Animation Committee and Mission Education Committees, 1981-1996; records re Urgent Action Network, 1989-2003, and records re Emergency Response, 1992-2005.
