WILLIAM ROBERT YOUNG FONDS – 1903-1915. – 9 cm of textual records.

William Robert Young (1854-1933) was a Methodist and United Church minister and administrator. Born near Kingston, Ontario, he studied at Wesleyan Theological College, Montreal, 1879-1881, and received a B.A. from Victoria College, Toronto, in 1890. He was ordained in 1881, and served numerous charges in Ontario and Quebec, including St. James Church, Montreal, 1905-1913. He served various offices in Church courts, and was a longtime Secretary of the General Board of Missions. He was involved in the final negotiations for Church Union in 1925, and planned the inaugural service of 1925 June 10. He retired in 1928, but served on the United Church General Council Executive until 1932. He also served on several non-church boards.

Fonds consists of fifty-four sermons, 1905-1915, and fifteen undated sermons; and undated addresses, a personal marriage register for St. Thomas, 1903-1905; Montreal, 1905; and Toronto, 1913.
