

CHRISTIAN GUARDIAN.

Wednesday, October 5th, 1842.

A FEW PLAIN DIRECTIONS TO A YOUNG MINISTER.

We have unexpectedly, but thankfully, received the following communication with the foregoing heading from "Iota," for insertion in the Guardian...

In the 11th section it is said, "Be sure never to disappoint a congregation. Begin at the time appointed. Let your whole deportment be serious, weighty, and solemn. Always suit your subject to your audience."

On the selection and giving out of hymns the writer is excellent. While the Discipline requires that the "subject" of a discourse be suited to the audience, it cannot be of little importance that the hymns be suited to the subject and the audience.

The writer is very judicious and Methodist in what he says of the use of the Lord's Prayer. Our Discipline is express on this point: "Let the Lord's Prayer be used on all occasions of public worship in concluding the first prayer, and the apostolical benediction in dismissing the congregation."

In the public and devotional services of the Methodists, uniformity is of no small consideration. Whenever our people worship in the country, there should not be a feeling of strangeness experienced by them when they have entered a Methodist church: they should find every thing as they have found it elsewhere, and have a consciousness of being at home.

Always be in the pulpit at the appointed hour, and commence the service when the congregation be assembled or not. If you are punctual, the people will soon learn to attend in proper time.

You will not doubt have selected a text of scripture that you thoroughly understand, for it would be in vain for you to attempt to teach what you do not know. But though the text may be perfectly plain, still it would be absurd to expect you could discourse on it to the edification of your audience, without having previously resolved it in your mind, and particularly scanned the doctrine it contains.

While you preach the Law, preach the Gospel too. A sinner is more ready to despair than to hope—hence, therefore, have a prominent place in your ministrations. The Gospel, on certain conditions, is full of hope.

Perhaps a sermon should never be more than thirty minutes in length. Dr.

Adam Clarke sometimes only preached fifteen minutes, simply because he had nothing more to say on the subject, and he could not bear to resort to useless repetition. Some young preachers find plenty, if not too much, to say on every subject, and they ought to be careful that what they do say bears on the matter in hand.

These hints are not given in a supercilious spirit. Being the result of many years' observation, both in Europe and America, they are presented to the Editor of the Guardian in the hope, that should he think it to publish them, some of them at least may be useful.

[PUBLISHED FROM LAST WEEK.]

HER MAJESTY'S REPRESENTATIVE AND THE "CHURCH'S" AGITATION—DISRESPECT—DISLOYALTY.

The reader may be aware that His Excellency the Governor-General has recently addressed a letter to a gentleman, offering him a seat in the Executive Council, in which letter His Excellency expresses his readiness to admit to the Council another gentleman. Whether His Excellency in doing so has acted wisely or unwisely it comes not within our province to say.

"Blessed are the peacemakers!"—We have nothing—will have nothing to do with the Governor-General as a politician; but we have to do with his character and station as HER MAJESTY'S REPRESENTATIVE, and ought to express, and will, our decided displeasure against any public writer who has the temerity to pour contempt on that Representative, and impugn his motives, and degrade him before Her Majesty's subjects.

THE QUEEN NO PUSEYITE.—In England Puseyism has many ramifications, and a compulsory or insidious policy to suit its Jesuitical design. The Puseyite Rector shows it in requiring his parishioners, of whatever belief, to attend his Church.

SEAT OF GOVERNMENT.—The following is a Despatch from the Home Office, just sent by the Governor-General to the House of Assembly, on a subject agitated for some time. For the present it seems to settle the question of the seat of Government;—but perhaps not permanently.

NEW ISMS.—It would be a task to number the various so-called religious isms which have been created within a few years—some the production and signs of delusion. The inspired and uncorrupted Word of God has been departed from, and those who have departed from it have stopped at no extravagance, however ridiculous or sinful.

APPOINTMENTS.—We learn from the last Canada Gazette that His Excellency the Governor-General has granted a Patent of Precedence to HENRY SHERRWOOD, Esq., as a Queen's Counsel, in all Her Majesty's Courts of Law and Equity in Western Canada; and appointed JAMES EDWARD SMALL, Esq., a Queen's Counsel, and the Solicitor-General for Western Canada, and a member of the Executive Council, in the room of Mr. Sherwood.

LOCAL PREACHERS AND SUNDAY TOLLS.—A case has been lately decided in England interesting to Local Preachers there, which our brethren of the same class of useful labourers in Canada may like to become acquainted with. The London Watchman says,—"Mr. Robert T. Rand, a Wesleyan-Methodist Local Preacher, summoned Mr. Robert Forster, the Billingham turnpike-gate keeper, before the bench of Magistrates, in 'petty sessions' at Stockton-on-Tees, on Wednesday last, for demanding toll of him on Sunday, July 31st, whilst on his way to preach, according to appointment, at Harlepool.

THE OREGON MISSION of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the States has lately suffered from the loss of several devoted Missionaries, which we deeply regret. In the last "Monthly Notice" there is a letter from Rev. Jason Lee, the Superintendent of the Mission, conveying the distressing intelligence of the very sudden death of Mrs. Lee, a Missionary heroine.

PUSEYISM MAKING DISSENTERS.—For months it has been rung in our ears by the Church, with a denfening vociferation, that Dissent was filling the ranks of the Church of England by counteraction.

WESLEYAN METHODIST ALMANAC FOR 1843.—We beg to direct special attention to this Almanac—the publication of which is announced in an advertisement which appears in our columns of to-day. As no pains have been spared to render this Calendar both instructive and interesting to every portion of the Canadian community, it is to be hoped that for it a correspondent patronage will be readily obtained.

NOTICE TO THE MISSIONARY TREASURERS.—The Corresponding Secretary of the Missionary Society regrets that the repeated notices on the subject of subscription lists have not yet resulted in their transmission to the General Treasurer from every part of the Province.

A TAX ON AMERICAN WHEAT AND FLOUR has just been decided upon by the House of Assembly, at the rate of three shillings sterling per barrel, or fivepence currency the bushel. The proceedings in the House on the subject will be found in our Parliamentary columns.

TO CORRESPONDENTS, who have for some time seemed to forget us, we are obliged for recent communications.—To "W. H. R." we must say, what we have already said twenty times to others, because his article is anonymous to us it cannot appear.—An active agent writes us saying, "Mr. — wishes you to stop his paper, as it is filled up with Parliamentary trash!"

DEDICATION.—The NEW WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH in Dumfries will be opened for Divine Service on the 30th of October. Preaching in the morning at 10 o'clock, A. M., at 2 P. M., and at 6 P. M. in the evening.

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND IN WALES.—A Welsh Catholic, (as he signs himself) alarmed at the threatened extinction of the Sun of Bango, has addressed a letter to the Morning Post, in which the happy effects of the Episcopal oversight with which this part of the Principality has long been blessed, are thus ingeniously described:—"Is this the time to diminish the number of our Bishops, (already too few) when Dissent stalks rampant through the land—when the preaching houses are threatened, and the houses of prayer almost deserted? Never was the closest care and superintendance of a Bishop more needed, nor where is the Church of Christ in a more fallen condition, than in North Wales."

THOUGHTS ON PHRENOLOGY AND MORAL OBLIGATION. DEAR SIR.—Within a few years past, some new sciences have been either called into existence, or dug up from among the rubbish in which they had been buried by the barbarism and ignorance of past ages.

COLLEGE OF THE PROPAGANDA.—The Foreign Quarterly says that the College of the Propaganda at Rome, intended chiefly for the education of natives of eastern countries as Catholic missionaries, contained in May ninety pupils. Of these five were Chinese, ten Chaldeans, six Armenians, four Georgians, five Syrians, five Maronites, four Egyptians, nine Greeks, five Albanians, three Bulgarians, one Illyrian, three Wallachians, four Germans, six Dutchmen, four Englishmen, five Scots, five Irishmen, and six Americans.

CONVERSION OF POPISH PRIESTS.—It is remarkable that so many Roman Catholic priests have, within the last two years, embraced the Protestant religion in France and Italy. Mr. Baird mentions in a recent lecture, "that he has known of eight Roman Catholics, four Frenchmen and four Italians, who have all, save one, deserted Romoism within the last two years. Two of them are at Lyons. The Abbe Mauretois in the south of France, but will soon go to Geneva, to prosecute his studies. A fourth is Mr. Favre; and the other four are Italians. Some of the most interesting hours which I spent when recently at Geneva, were spent in the company of two Italian priests, and one French priest, (Mr. F.) who have embraced Protestantism. One of these priests had been a secular, and was a curate, for a number of years; one had been a Jesuit, and a third was once a Dominican!"

RELIGIOUS TRACT SOCIETY.—The Annual Meeting of the Religious Tract Society at Stratford was held on the 29th ultimo. Mr. Jones, the Donor from the Parent Society, addressed the assembly on the proceedings of the Society. He said that in the times of the greatest emergency God always appeared for them in some signal manner; in proof of which he mentioned two instances. About twenty years ago, the Society was obliged to borrow money to carry on its operations, till at last they did not know where to turn for the required aid. At this time, an aged gentleman appeared at the Depot one day, and said to the attendant there, "Here is a donation for you."
